ACADEMIC CUSTOMS AND DRESS

The origins of many customs of the academic world are to be traced to the Middle Ages, particularly the eleventh and twelfth centuries when the first universities – Bologna, Paris and Oxford – were founded.

In their original organization, the universities were like medieval corporations or guilds. In fact the word ‘universitas’ originally referred to any kind of corporation. The students at the universities were equated to guild apprentices, and so the completion of this apprenticeship was celebrated by a ‘commencement’ marking the beginning of their careers.

In the twelfth century, everyone wore gowns. The social and economic status of an individual was shown by the extra features, such as fur trimming, on these gowns. Cloaks with hoods were worn over these gowns for protection in bad weather. Degrees began to be awarded in the thirteenth century, and different styles of gowns and different colors came to represent the various degrees and disciplines.

Over the centuries the styles of dress changed, and by the seventeenth century, the wearing of gowns by men had virtually ceased. But the universities, particularly those in Britain, continued to be conservative and strict in the matter of academic customs and dress. At Oxford, for instance, students could be fined for cutting class or for not taking notes, and candidates for the master’s degree had to swear that they owned a gown and would always wear it at the proper times!

The first American universities were founded on English models. However, the wearing of academic dress was not universal and ceased during the Civil War. The custom was revived in the late nineteenth century, and in 1895 an Academic Costume Code was adopted which, with modifications, is still used.

Most American universities have the standard black gown with the hood serving to distinguish the individual institutions. Some American and European universities have adopted or preserved more distinctive gowns. There are three styles of gowns, distinguished mainly by the sleeves: the bachelor’s gown, with long, pointed sleeves; the master’s, with a squared sleeve, cut so the forearm is free; the doctor’s, with bell-shaped sleeves with three velvet bands.

The hood is the really distinguishing feature of modern gowns, indicating the degree (the width of the edging band), the discipline (the color of the band) and the college or university (the colors of the lining). Today’s graduates have hoods edged in white (B.A., M.A.L.S.), gold (B.S., B.L.S.) or drab (M.B.A.). Many faculty members will have blue edging indicating the Ph.D. degree. The Faculty will be wearing hoods representing more than 80 institutions of higher education, e.g., navy blue and orange for the University of Virginia, orange and maroon for Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University, cardinal and blue for the University of Pennsylvania.

ACADEMIC HONORS AND SPECIAL AWARDS

ACADEMIC DISTINCTION. General academic attainment based solely on the student's academic average. The level of attainment, based on the student earning at least 60 hours on which quality points may be computed, is as follows:

|                 |      |
|-----------------|------|
| Cum Laude       | 3.25 |
| Magna Cum Laude | 3.50 |
| Summa Cum Laude | 3.75 |

These students are listed on the program insert.

FINAL HONORS. Final Honors are awarded at Commencement to students who achieve a 3.75 grade-point average in their last 56 credits earned, at least 44 of which must be MWC graded credits. These students are recognized on the insert.

DEPARTMENTAL HONORS. Students may earn honors in their major subjects. Each department establishes its own requirements for honors projects or theses. All departments require that a student intending to undertake an honors project have a specified minimum grade-point average in the major subject and a minimum grade-point average for all work taken at Mary Washington College. These students are also recognized on the program insert.

ALPHA PHI SIGMA. Established to encourage learning and to recognize high scholastic achievement. Requirements for admission are a 3.25 average and 60 semester hours. These students are recognized with a ■ in front of their name.

MORTAR BOARD. Mortar Board is the national senior honorary honoring those students who combine outstanding records of scholarship, leadership and service. Founded as a women's honorary in 1918, it has been open to both men and women since 1976. The Mary Washington Chapter was formed in 1959. These students are recognized with a ♦ in front of their name.

PHI BETA KAPPA. Phi Beta Kappa is a national honor society devoted to the recognition of excellence and the stimulation of achievement in the pursuit of liberal education. Started in 1776 at the College of William and Mary, the organization has since expanded to include chapters at 237 colleges and universities in the United States. The Mary Washington College chapter, Kappa of Virginia, was organized in 1971. Students elected to Phi Beta Kappa in 1985 are recognized with a • in front of their name, a ‡ if they were elected in 1986, and a † if they were elected in 1987.

ALMA MATER

*All hail, dear Alma Mater,
We sing our praise to you,
High on Marye's Hilltop
You stand forever true;
Born in truth and honor
You ever more shall be,
The model of our future years
And all eternity.*

*Whene'er we have to leave you
We never will forget,
The lessons you have taught us,
And all the friends we've met;
And we your sons and daughters
Will hold your name on high,
So here's to Mary Washington;
Our love will never die.*
